No board meeting was held during this month.

Reports of Children

Children remained safe and healthy this january, without any serious diseases. They were well cared by the home mother and kitchen mother; the children were fed with nutritious diet.

During the month of january Anju and Anoj were having pre-board examination of class 10 before the final terminal examination. They were busy with their study and spent much more time in studying than extra activities.

Twice a week, on Friday and Saturday children take dance classes with hired dancer Ms. Simran, who is professional state level dancer as well as athlete.
